Corona Newsletter 001

Fr Jeremy Writes

Well, it's a rather lonely office now with Sue, Lisa and Nina on furlough for the foreseeable future owing to the restrictions brought in during the current health emergency. Though, perhaps, it is an appropriate moment to express my sincere and undying appreciation for all they do, the extent of which I begin to realise as I sit here pecking at the keyboard with two fingers.

This is a kind of interim newsletter just to give you some information about what is happening this week in terms of the services for Holy Week and Easter. The major ceremonies of the Sacred Triduum, that is the three holiest days of the Christian year (triduum = 'three days' [Lat.], are Holy Thursday, Good Friday and the Vigil of Easter. I will be celebrating these services in the church, albeit in a cut down form as instructed by the Vatican Congregation for Divine Worship and the Discipline of the Sacraments. However, there will be no one present, of course, except Paul, the seminarian who lodges with me and is therefore of the same household. Moreover, I am not permitted to record the services in advance owing to their solemn nature and, due to personal incompetence and various technical issues, I am not able to live stream. So for these services live I would refer you to the cathedral: www.portsmouthcatholiccathedral.org.uk. The times are as follows:

Maundy Thursday: Solemn Mass of the Lord's Supper	8.00pm
Good Friday: Solemn Liturgy of the Lord's Passion	3.00pm
Holy Saturday: Solemn Vigil and First Mass of Easter	8.00pm
